Though the seasons do not officially change until what is called the Autumnal Equinox (Sept. 22 this year), for most of us the summer is already drawing to a close. Many schools have been in session for a while, but around here Labor Day is considered the “last hurrah.” After that, the fall schedule kicks in!

I hope you will make church attendance a priority this fall. Did you know that we have over 800 names on the membership role of our church? But when have we ever seen that many at one time? Some of our “members” have not darkened the doors in my twenty years as your pastor. (I sure hope they are going somewhere.) But more often, people with every intention of making worship and Bible study an important part of their week just get distracted. Long work hours, family responsibilities, recreation opportunities, and the ever-present temptation of a soft pillow can so easily break the spiritually healthy habits that feed our souls.

Jesus invites us to be part of His Church! I hope you will renew your commitment to be with your brothers and sisters in Christ on Sundays—and maybe other times, as well. Broadus is a great place to do that! I know you will be in for a blessing!

When September rolls around, my thoughts are on Christmas. For most of you, that seems so far away, but for me and other music leaders, it is right around the corner. Preparation for the celebration begins now. I mention this so you can plan to be a part of these programs, either as a participant or a worshipper.

The preschoolers and school-age children (Musical Missions Kids) will be working on a program called “The Colors Of Christmas” which will be presented Sunday, Dec. 2 at 4:30. They meet on Wednesdays at 6:00. Even if you haven’t come on Wednesdays in the past, consider making this a part of your week. We would love to have your children participating.

Another important date is Sunday, Dec. 16 at 6:00. This will be a special worship time presented by the Worship Choir and Praise Team. Any youth or adult is welcome to join in the fun! Practices will begin September 26, from 7:15-7:45 each Wednesday. It would be so helpful to have someone watch children during these Christmas practices. If you might consider serving this way, please contact me.

That’s enough about Christmas. Let’s enjoy the fall! See you in worship,
 Carol
