SERMON NOTES

⇒ The Priest and the Levite (Luke 10:31-32)

One of the most frequently missed opportunities is service—acts of helpfulness and kindness — to others. Therefore, Jesus constantly taught and exemplified what it meant to live as a servant.

⇒ The Sheep and the Goats (Matthew 25:31-46)

God takes our service to others seriously.

God takes our service to others personally.

God takes our service to others and uses it as an invitation into the Kingdom of God.

"People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care."

Jesus, at Your Holy Table

Jesus, at Your holy table, May our hearts united be.
Bind us with Your grace and presence that redeem and set us free.
Crucify our pride and hatred, light the path on which we walk.
Teach us how to love each other, in the way that You have taught.

Christ, remind us of Your passion, of Your precious life outpoured.
Of the love which none can fathom, and our victory evermore.
Bread of heaven, wine of promise, feed us with Your holy Word.
Nourish us with Your strong presence, Risen Savior, only Lord.

He Reigns

It's the song of the redeemed rising from the African plain.
It's the song of the forgiven drowning out the Amazon rain.
The song of Asian believers filled with God's holy fire.
It's every tribe, every tongue, every nation; a love song born of a grateful choir.

*It's all God's children singing glory, glory, hallelujah, He reigns; He reigns.
It's all God's children singing glory, glory, hallelujah, He reigns (He reigns).*

Let it rise above the four winds caught up in the heavenly sound.
Let praises echo from the towers of cathedrals to the faithful gathered underground.
Of all the songs sung from the dawn of creation, some were meant to persist.
Of all the bells rung from a thousand steeples, none rings truer than this.

And all the powers of darkness tremble at what they've just heard.
'Cause all the powers of darkness can't drown out a single word.

Follow You

You live among the least of these, the weary and the weak,
And it would be a tragedy for me to turn away.
All my needs You have supplied, when I was dead, You gave me life.
How could I not give it away so freely?

*I'll follow You into the homes of the broken,
I'll follow You into the world.
I'll meet the needs for the poor and the needy.
God, I'll follow You into the world.*

Use my hands, use my feet to make Your kingdom come,
To the corners of the earth until Your work is done.
'Cause faith without works is dead, and on the cross Your blood was shed.
So how could we not give it away so freely?

I give all myself, I give all myself, I give all myself to You.
Oh, and I give all myself, yes, I give all myself,
And I give all myself to You, yeah.

Let Your Heart Be Broken

Let your heart be broken for a world in need;
Feed the mouths that hunger, soothe the wounds that bleed.
Give the cup of water and the loaf of bread.
Be the hands of Jesus, serving in His stead.

Add to your believing deeds that prove it true.
Knowing Christ as Savior, make Him Master, too.
Follow in His footsteps, go where He has trod.
In the world's great trouble, risk yourself for God.

Let your heart be tender and your vision clear.
See mankind as God sees, serve Him far and near.
Let your heart be broken by another's pain.
Share your rich resources; give and give again.
