Some of you have not picked up the new offering envelope boxes for you and your family, please stop by the display in the Commons today. Thank you!

Gideon: In Weakness Made Strong
Judges 6-7

We pick up the story where we left off last week. God called a lowly farmer named Gideon to lead the Israelites against the oppression of the Midianites. Gideon was obedient to destroy the altar to Baal on his father’s own property, and to set up an altar to the one true God. But would he be brave enough to go up against the whole Midianite army?
