Summer Sermon Series: "Forgotten Names, Remembered Stories"
Naaman's Servants Save the Day
2 Kings 5:1-17

Why did an un-named slave girl share hopeful words about her master's condition of leprosy?

- ◆ She knew something Naaman did not.
- ◆ She was not overcome by bitterness and self-pity.
- ◆ She had developed a trustworthy reputation.
- ◆ She had a spiritual boldness.
- ◆ She had an unwavering faith.

What made Naaman listen to his servants advice when they had no more information than he did?

- ◆ They were respectful.
- ◆ They were logical and level-headed.
- ◆ They cared about his condition.

What opportunity has God given you to share words of life and hope? Have you cultivated a relationship that will encourage them to listen?

Dear Broadus Family,

Thank you for the many expressions of kindness and sympathy after George Condules' sudden passing. We treasure your cards, calls, flowers, and prayers during this very difficult time. Also, a wonderful thank you to all who donated food, helped babysit, and served food on the day of his memorial service. While we are greatly mourning his loss, we know that he is now rejoicing with his Savior.

With much gratitude,
Harriet, Laura, Ira, and Allison
