Summer Sermon Series: “Forgotten Names, Remembered Stories”

The Generous Widow Mark 12:41-44

While sitting in the temple courts, Jesus saw a poor unnamed widow put two pennies into the offering box. I’m sure his comments surprised the disciples, but they taught valuable lessons about Christian stewardship.

- ◆ God takes notice of our giving.
- ◆ He cares more about the “how” than the “what.”
- ◆ God expects and honors sacrifice and generosity for the cause of Christ.
- ◆ God exalts the small when it represents our best.
- ◆ If God commented on your giving, what would He have to say?
