Elijah and the God Who Speaks
1 Kings 19:9-18

After the great victory on Mount Carmel, Elijah was forced to flee from the wicked and vindictive Queen Jezebel. God sent him all the way down into the Sinai Peninsula to Mount Horeb, where God had spoken to Moses 400 years earlier. While there, Elijah learned something about listening to the voice of God.

How does God tend to speak to us today?

- ◆ Through His "still small voice."
- ◆ Through a sense of inner peace.
- ◆ Through open and closed doors.
- ◆ Through other people.
- ◆ Through the study of His Word.

Broadus Fall Family Festival
12:30-2:30 TODAY

This is going to be a wonderful two hours of outreach and ministry to the community. There will be food, games, inflatables, prizes, the Fun Bus and more! And everything is perfectly FREE.

If you are able, please either stay to help set up after worship or come back to participate. Don't forget to bring your baked goods for the cake walk. Even if you have not signed up as a volunteer, assistance is always needed with parking, food, game monitoring, and clean-up. You can also meander around making friends with our guests—some who might be looking for a loving church home.

It's not too late to make a call reminding family and friends to come by for some FUN!

Wednesday Night Dinners
5:15-5:45 pm

If you expect to eat supper with us on Wednesday nights, please fill out a red reservation card from the chair pockets and put it in an offering receptacle or call the church office (779-2700) by noon on Monday. Cancellations or changes to your reservation may also be done in the same way. Thanks!

The menu this week is spaghetti, salad bar, bread and pie.

Wednesday Night Programs
6:00-7:15 pm

We got off to a great start last week, but it's never too late to join a Bible study. Children, youth, and two adult groups are meeting each week.
