

THE MISSION

Making each one a witness!
Broadus Church
Belong. Believe. Become.

www.broaduschurch.org

Saturday, Nov. 5th

This is an opportunity to show God's love to our neighbors through community ministry projects. We will be cutting firewood, participating in the Mo Hope feeding ministry, repairing houses, distributing appreciation baskets, visiting homebound members, and much more. Most project teams will begin at 8:30 am.

Please sign up by Sunday, Oct. 30 by turning in a completed brochure or by emailing your choices to phil@broadusmbc.org.

November 11th is Veteran's Day.

It is a holiday honoring men and women who have served in the United States armed forces. Our church is so very proud to have many veterans both present and past. This year, we will honor our veterans by displaying any pictures and any memorabilia that you may have. If you would like to have something displayed, please contact Debbie Seay at (804)873-9785. Please bring these items to church by Thursday, November 3rd.

Also, there will be two quilts on display honoring our veterans. These quilts will be given away to two worthy recipients. So, if you are a veteran or if you know of someone who has served in the armed forces, please stop by the table and fill out one of the forms for a chance to take home one of the beautiful quilts.

This month, on the Sunday before Turkey Day, we will begin receiving our Thanksgiving Missions Offering. For those who have been around Broadus a while, this is old hat. We're also accustomed to taking up a special offering at Easter. But for those who have come into our fellowship from a different Southern Baptist church, our system might seem odd.

You see, traditionally our brand of Baptists reserve the end-of-the-year holiday season for something called the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions. Then in March comes the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for North American Missions. (These and other offerings have been named after women who were instrumental participants and supporters of mission work.) Added onto the calendar are often at least two more—state missions and associational missions offerings—plus sometimes others like a world hunger offering. Before you know it, a new special offering is being promoted every couple of months.

To the best of my understanding, many decades prior to my arrival, the Broadus family decided enough was enough! They voted to limit missions offerings to two per year—Easter and Thanksgiving. Much to my relief, the “new” system has survived the test of time.

So who ends up with the money, generally a combined $30K-$40K annually? That answer is easy. Every year our Missions Committee makes a recommendation to the church about how those special donations get divided up and sent out. You can see our current break-down on the right column of this page. The Easter Offering is divided up in a similar way involving North American missions, state missions and associational missions. Though some designations change from time to time, what you can count on is that every cent you give to the missions offerings is sent out to our ministry partners locally and globally. None is kept here at our own church.

Our Hebron Campus recently had a missionary speaker highlighting how our gifts make a difference around the world. On November 13, the Pole Green Campus will be privileged to hear Paul Bishop from the International Mission Board for the same purpose. Let's take to heart what we learn, and give generously! Other people deserve to know about the love of Jesus. Let's make sure it happens!

God bless, and Happy Thanksgiving!

Pastor Phil

“Making Each One a Witness”

As a former banker, I like numbers. Numbers are pretty simple. They do not tell an entire story, but they help to shine a light on things. One of the numbers I track is the number of guests who visit church. Since our 2019 Vision Statement says “Broadus Church: Making Each One A Witness,” the number I focus on the most is the number of invited guests. If you have not seen our “Guest Card,” at the bottom is a line, “I am a guest of _____. In 2022 we had more invited guests than any year since Hebron opened except for 2020. Sixteen of the 19 families who we received a Guest Card from were invited by someone. I am so proud that you are inviting friends to come visit us at our church. I hope you continue to invite them to come back. I am excited that you are living out our Church Vision Statement. I am happiest that you are sharing your love of God with others as God has commanded.

Pastor Jeff
