Moments Of Hope

Many thanks to everyone who donated food and put in volunteer hours yesterday as we fed hundreds of people downtown!

As we prepare for July 1, please participate in writing cards of encouragement which will be added to the lunches we serve. Cards are available at the table in the Commons, or you may use your own. Thank you.

No more plastic bags are needed at this time.

The Treasure Principle: Barriers to Eternal Riches Luke 12:13-21

*"Then Jesus said to them, 'Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.'"
Luke 12:15*

Jesus told a parable which we usually call "The Rich Fool." The wealthy farmer in the story exhibited some of the classic barriers to a generous life that invests in heavenly treasures.

- ◆ He consulted only himself. He had the barrier of self-centeredness.
- ◆ He counted on only himself. He had the barrier of arrogance.
- ◆ He considered only himself. He had the barrier of greed.
- ◆ He cared only about this world. He had the barrier of short-sightedness.

We need to be able to identify the barriers to generosity that arise in our own lives. These principles will help us overcome them:

- ⇒ Heaven, not earth, is our true home.
- ⇒ Giving is the only antidote to greed.

Ministry in Ukraine

Please pray for Stuart Martin as he prepares to return to Ukraine in early June. He will be ministering in orphanages and refugee centers, bringing our donations of clothes and money with him—including several thousand dollars from the recent yard sale. Be praying as well for an end to the fighting in Ukraine, Sudan, and elsewhere.
