SERMON NOTES

Zechariah: The Day of Small Things

Like Haggai, Zechariah was a prophet among the Jews who returned to their homeland from the Babylonian exile. His book has more apocalyptic visions and Messianic prophecies than any of the other minor prophets. But another important focus was the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem, which had been in ruins for over 70 years. It was a monumental task, yet every small step would bring it closer to completion. The same is true in our lives. Empowered by God's Spirit, faithfulness in small things brings about great accomplishments.

"Who despises the day of small things?"
Zechariah 4:10a

- ◆ Don't despise (neglect) small tasks.
- ◆ Don't despise (overlook) small resources.
- ◆ Don't despise (ignore) small accomplishments.

Connection Meals

We rarely visit in one another's homes anymore. But on the weekend of September 15-17, we will be offering "Connection Meals" for the first time! These are designed to build relationships within our congregation, as well as between our two church campuses. Everyone is encouraged to participate with approximately 8-10 people assigned to a fun dinner group.

We ask that you sign up by Wednesday, Sept 6 by completing a red card from the chair pockets and putting it in an offering receptacle, or by calling the church office (804-779-2700). Please let us know the number in your family, which evenings work for you, and whether you are open to hosting in your home. Potential hosts will be contacted by Sept 7. Other participants will be contacted by their host with directions and instructions one week before the event.

Our plan is to try having Connection Meals quarterly, with the next ones scheduled for January and April 2024. If you can't do it now, we hope you will participate next time!
