SERMON NOTES

Too Good a Secret to Keep
Mark 1:40-45

It doesn’t seem unusual that Jesus healed a man with leprosy. What’s surprising to us is his instruction to the man following the miracle. He told him not to tell anyone! Jesus certainly had his reasons for such an unusual command, but for the newly healed fellow it was too good a secret to keep. Why did he immediately share the news with others?

- ◆ The secret involved a change too obvious.
- ◆ The secret involved a change too important.
- ◆ The secret involved a change too amazing!

That man spread the news of Jesus’ love and power even when told not to. Knowing his heart, I believe it was an easy sin for Jesus to forgive. We, on the other hand, often stay silent even though we’ve been instructed to share. Shouldn’t the good news of a loving Savior be overflowing from us?
