Choral Benediction “O How He Loves You and Me” Abby Carter

*O how He loves you and me. O how He loves you and me;
He gave His life, what more could he give?
O how He loves you; O how He loves me; O how He loves you and me!*

Worship Childcare: Childcare for infants-Pre-K is provided from 9:50-11:00 a.m. in rooms 108-111. Older children may help themselves to activity-filled worship bulletins on the shelves at the entrance to the Worship Center.

Books Available: If you would like a Bible or hymnbook to use during worship, you may pick it up from the cart at the back of the worship center, then return it afterward. Feel free to take home a Bible if you need one!

Giving: Your offering or response cards can be placed in the plates which will be passed during the service, or in the receptacle located in the Commons.

Digital Access: Join us if you’re sick or traveling! The service is broadcast on Facebook Live and posted to the church website BroadusChurch.org by Tuesday afternoon. To receive weekly bulletins & monthly newsletters via email, please contact the office to be added to the distribution list.

SERMON NOTES

Words of Anguish

For some Christians, it is more difficult to come to grips with the humanity of Jesus than his divinity. But among his sayings from the cross are words that reflect both the physical and spiritual anguish he faced.

- ◆ “I am thirsty.” (John 19:28)
 - ◇ This statement by Jesus was a fulfillment of prophecy.
 - ◇ It was also a reminder of his humanity, and the reality of the physical suffering he endured on our behalf.

- ◆ “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” (Mark 15:34)
 - ◇ This statement acknowledges Jesus’ mental and spiritual agony.
 - ◇ It speaks to the consequences of sin, not the character of God.
 - ◇ It also calls attention to the fulfilled prophecy of Psalm 22.

The anguish Jesus experienced on the cross was real. He endured it for our sake, offering it as a gift of love so that we might be saved. If you repent of your sins and put your faith in him, his death for you will not be in vain!
