SERMON NOTES

Nehemiah: Refocusing on What Matters to God
Nehemiah 1:1-11

The book of Nehemiah gives us a record of how the wall of Jerusalem was repaired following the time of the Babylonian Exile. The written account comes from Nehemiah, an official in the court of the Persian King and a respected leader among the Jewish people. It provides a wealth of historical information, but also some important spiritual lessons about pursuing God’s purpose for our lives and our church.

- ♦ Nehemiah’s Life (1:1)
- ♦ Nehemiah’s Curiosity (1:2)
- ♦ Nehemiah’s Heart (1:3-4)
- ♦ Nehemiah’s Prayer (1:5-11)

Fall Family Fun Day!

Today at 3:30-6:00 pm
Pole Green Campus Pavilion

The church will provide fried chicken and drinks, and we ask members to bring a covered-dish to share. (Dish suggestions are being made through Sunday School classes. If not in a class, bring whatever!) Eating will begin around 5pm.

There will be a bouncy slide, mini-hay maze, balloon animals, and plenty of games. Come join us, and bring someone with you. We love to meet new friends from the community!

Everything is free!
